

Wind Energy Education at Universities in SA workshop

The role of university education in the renewable energy future

A report on some future possibilities for progressing wind energy education at South African universities:

- What are the needs of the wind energy sector for university level graduates?
- What are the aims of universities in South Africa for wind energy education?
- Where do the challenges lie?
- What resources are needed?
- Co-operation nationally and internationally

